

openhousehobart.org
TAKE A LOOK.

OPEN HOUSE HOBART
SAT 5-SUN 6 NOVEMBER 2016
HOBART ARCHITECTURE AND DESIGN MONTH

HIT ME WITH YOUR BEST SHOT

The best images of Hobart's built environment will win big. Just tag your pics #oh_hobart on social media to be in the running.

SPONSORS

Thanks to our generous sponsors for making Open House Hobart possible.

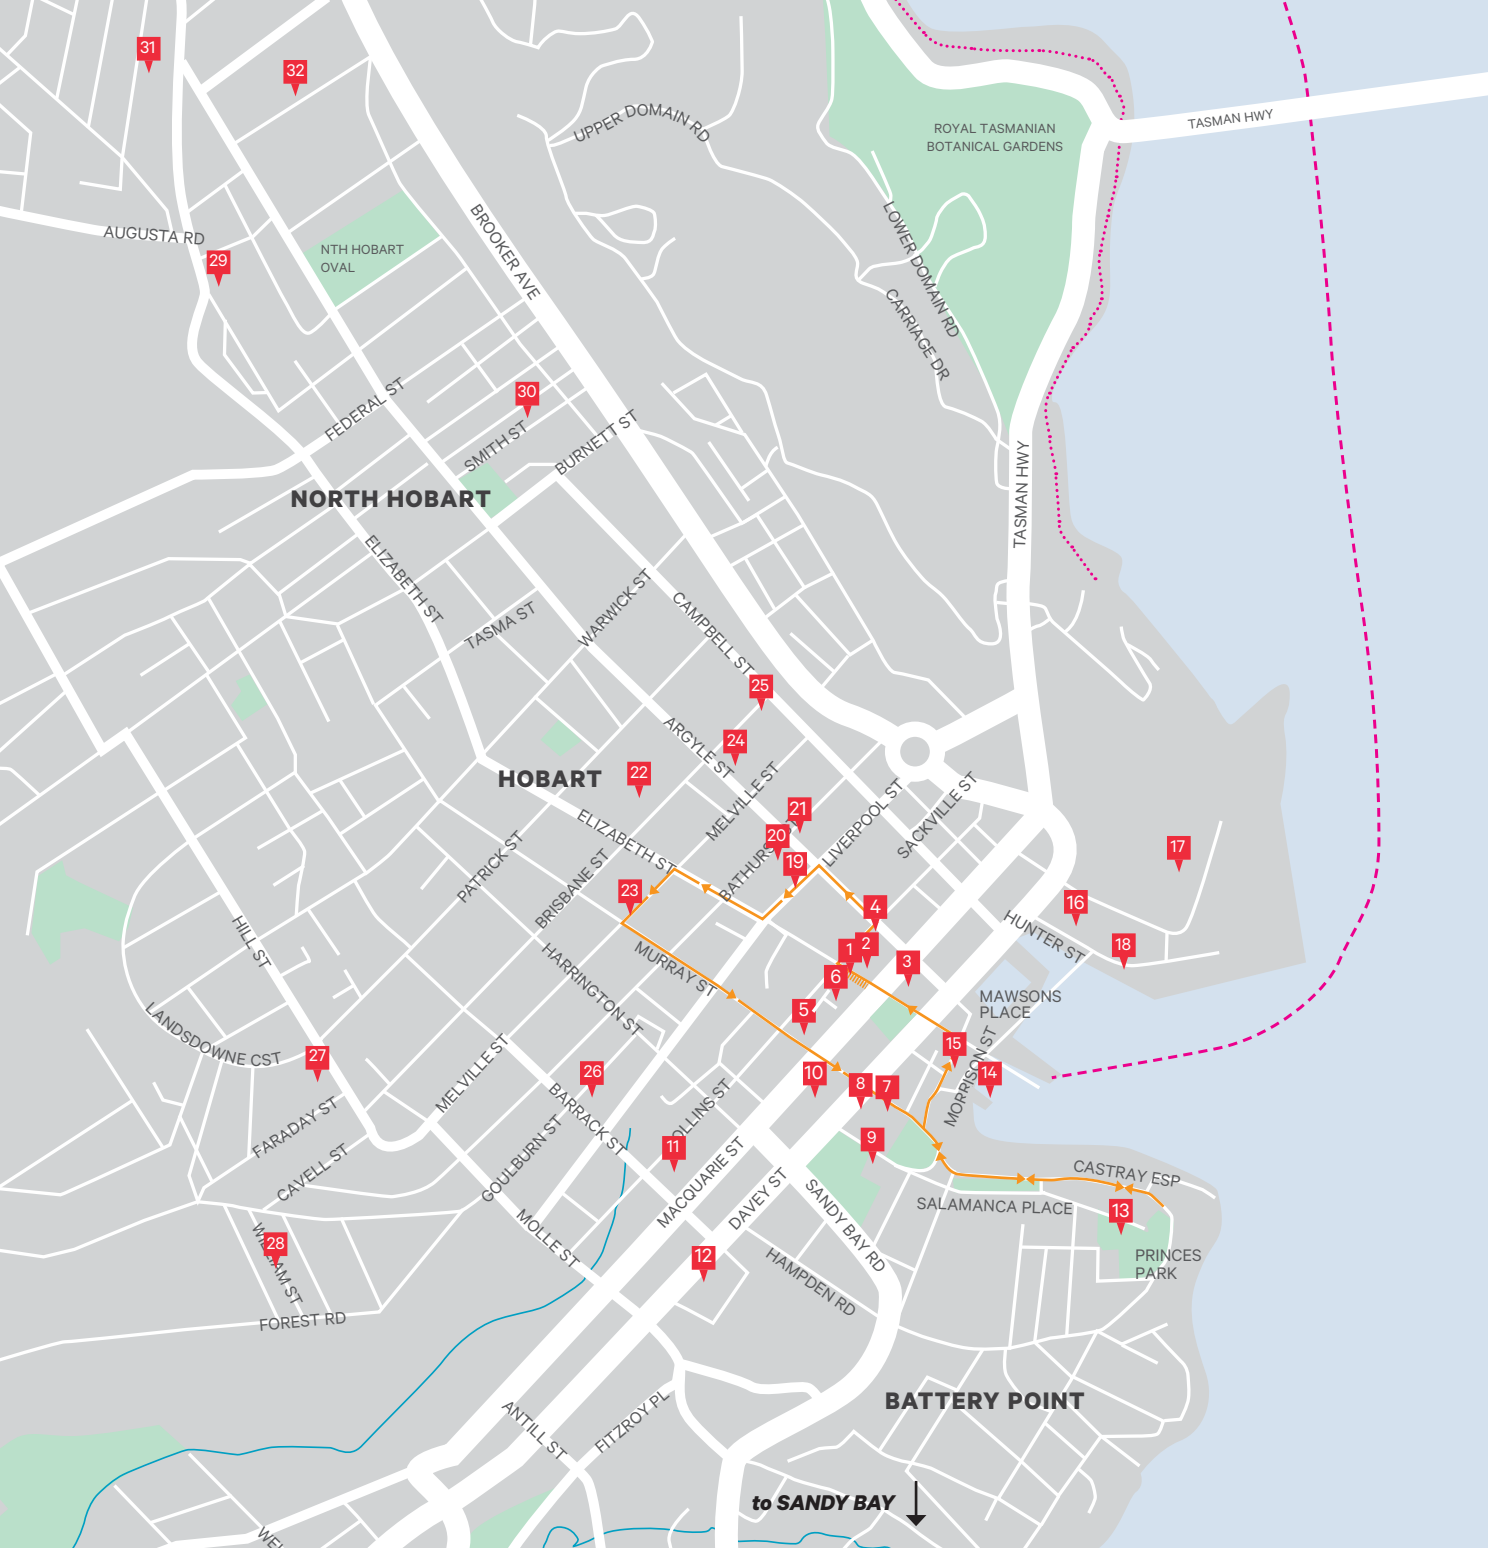

MAJOR PARTNERS

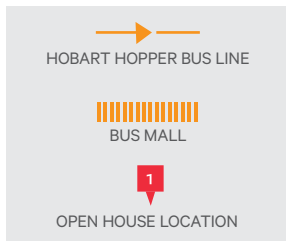

DESIGN PARTNER

SUPPORTING SPONSORS

HOBART CITY, WEST HOBART, NORTH HOBART + NEW TOWN SATURDAY 5 NOVEMBER

- | | | |
|--|-------------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 1 Colonial Mutual Life | 16 Henry Jones Art Hotel | 31 New Town Road House |
| 2 GPO Tower | 17 Tasports Tower | 32 Boa Vista Road |
| 3 Hobart Town Hall | 18 MAC O1 Hotel-Under Construction | 33 West Point |
| 4 Raft South | 19 Bank Arcade | 34 York Street House |
| 5 St David's Cathedral | 20 Vodafone | 35 UTAS into the Future |
| 6 The Basement | 21 Hobart Synagogue | 36 Dorney House at Fort Nelson |
| 7 Parliament Square Heritage Buildings | 22 Church of Christ Scientist | 37 River's Edge House |
| 8 Parliament Square Office Buildings | 23 LINC | 38 Tarooma Shot Tower |
| 9 Supreme Court | 24 Tasmania Fire Museum | 39 Tarooma Beach Boatsheds |
| 10 Real Tennis Club | 25 Penitentiary Chapel | 40 Hill House |
| 11 CCAML | 26 The Barn | 41 Pius X Church |
| 12 Angelsea Barracks | 27 Hill St Reservoir + Pump Station | 42 St Clements Church + Chapel |
| 13 Princes Park Magazine | 28 William Street House | 43 Salty Dog Hotel |
| 14 Brooke Street Pier | 29 Friends School | 44 Tarremah Hall |
| 15 Brickworks Design Studio | 30 Smith Street Warehouse | |

SANDY BAY, TAROOMA + KINGSTON SUNDAY 6 NOVEMBER

HOBART ARCHITECTURE AND DESIGN MONTH

Bookings essential at
openhousehobart.org

All events are free, unless otherwise stated.

CITY STRATEGY FOR A SOCIAL DEMOCRACY

7 NOV

Danish architect Rolf Svendsen presents a series of recent projects that focus on research and policy development in Danish towns and cities, and explores examples of how that methodology translates to Australian conditions.

Where: IMAS, Castray Esp
When: 6-7:30pm Monday 7 November

2016 TASMANIAN ARCHITECTURE AWARDS HIGHLIGHTS

14 NOV

All the winners from this year's architecture awards share the highs and lows, challenges and success of architecture and design around the state.

Where: MS1 Lecture Theatre, cnr Campbell & Liverpool St
When: 6:30pm Monday 14 November

DRESS UP FOR ART & DESIGN

19 NOV

Exercise your design muscles at Hobart's hottest new waterfront pub in this special fundraiser for Design Tasmania in its 40th birthday year!

Where: Salty Dog Hotel, Kingston Beach
When: 6:30pm Saturday 19 November

SCALING HOBART: THE URBAN FORM OF THE CITY CENTRE

3 NOV

Renowned architect Leigh Woolley has been commissioned by Hobart City Council to consider building height standards for the city centre. At this free public lecture Leigh will discuss emerging townscape values and what's at stake for Hobart.

Where: MS1 Lecture Theatre, cnr Campbell & Liverpool St
When: 6-7:30pm Thursday 3 November

WORKPLACE DESIGN TOUR

4 NOV

The Design Institute of Australia invites members to explore current and emerging workplace design in Hobart with an exclusive look inside Vodafone's national call centre and the soon to be completed Parliament Square government precinct guided by the design team and developers.

Where: Brickworks Design Studio, Franklin Wharf
When: 3pm Friday 4 November
Cost: $25 members | $55 public

FIRE, FLOOD AND THE RISK OF INSURANCE

15 NOV

Insurance is a disaster management mechanism, and insurers are playing an increasingly influential role in land use planning. Focusing on house and contents insurance and natural disasters, human geographer Dr Kate Booth explores the role of insurance, insurers and emerging implications.

Where: Institute of Architects, 1/19a Hunter St, Hobart
When: 12:30-2pm Tuesday 15 November
Cost: $10 members | $15 public

ADAPTIVE REUSE IN TASMANIA

23 NOV

Conserving and adapting heritage places is the best way to ensure they survive into the future. Heritage Tasmania staff will explore recent successful examples of adaptive reuse, and identify the key steps in the design and approvals process.

Where: Institute of Architects, 1/19a Hunter St, Hobart
When: 5:30-6:30pm Wednesday 23 November

ABERCROMBIE LECTURE: ROZ HANSEN

8 NOV

The Planning Institute of Australia's biennial lecture honours one of Australia's most distinguished town planners. This year Roz Hansen explores the relationship between public and private interests in planning, and how to get the balance right.

Where: MS2 Lecture Theatre, Cnr Campbell & Liverpool Sts
When: 6-7:30pm Tuesday 8 November

SHORT, SHARP, SMART

16 NOV

AGDA Tasmania presents the most stunning and inspirational short films about mastering your design and creativity.

Where: Founders Room, Salamanca Arts Centre
When: 6pm Wednesday 16 November
Cost: $20 members | $15 students | $30 public

OPEN HOUSE HOBART SAT 5-SUN 6 NOVEMBER 2016 HOBART ARCHITECTURE AND DESIGN MONTH

EDWARDS MOORE

10 NOV

Melbourne-based architect Juliet Moore's infectious energy and belief in architecture's inclusivity has enabled her to lead complex design projects through to spectacular results. At this special seminar she'll reflect on recent and future projects as well as Edwards Moore's evolving practice model.

Where: Institute of Architects, 1/19a Hunter St, Hobart
When: 12:30-2pm Thursday 10 November
Cost: $22 members | $24 students | $40 public

SLIDE NIGHT AT THE BALDWIN'S

17 NOV

Markree's architect Bernard Ridley Walker is remembered mainly for the Hobart Cenotaph and the Friends' School portico but his domestic practice was prolific and defined early 20th century Sandy Bay and New Town. Join us for a cool gin and tonic and canapés as we explore Walker's portfolio through an old-fashioned slide night.

Where: Markree, 145 Hampden Rd, Battery Point
When: 7pm Thursday 17 November

ENGINEERING ON HOBART'S WATERFRONT

5 NOV

Discover what it takes to maintain and care for our built environment on this 60-minute walking tour of Hobart's waterfront.

Guide: Peter Spratt
When: 2pm Saturday 5 November

NEW MODELS FOR URBAN HOUSING

10 NOV

Can Hobart have its own Nightingale or The Commons? Small Giants' Dave Martin discusses the possibilities, and a tenant from The Commons reveals what it's like to live in Australia's most talked about apartment block.

Where: MS1 Lecture Theatre, cnr Campbell & Liverpool St
When: 6-7:30pm Thursday 10 November

TAROOMA ART TRAIL

19 NOV

Twelve hours of sculpture, land art and ephemeral installations that reflect the essence of living within the Tarooma landscape.

Where: Tarooma Beach, Tarooma
When: 10am-10pm Saturday 19 November

HOBART PRACTICE FORUM

28 NOV

Architects are invited to discuss the issues affecting them in the practice of architecture in Tasmania.

When: 12:30pm Monday 28 November
Where: Institute of Architects, 1/19a Hunter St, Hobart

WHAT STYLE IS THAT?

5 NOV

Learn to tell your Classical from your Gothic and your Doric from your Ionic on this 90-minute walking tour of Hobart's most beautiful buildings (and a couple of ugly ones too!).

Guide: Robyn Everist
When: 11am & 1pm Saturday 5 November

SPLASH OF RED BALL

11 NOV

Emerging Architects Tasmania and Brickworks invite you to splash out in red and celebrate Tasmanian architecture and design at the annual architecture ball.

Where: Brickworks Design Studio, Franklin Wharf
When: 7pm Friday 11 November
Cost: $25 (early bird until 2 November), $30

THE CITY DARK

30 NOV

Do we need the stars? Filmmaker Ian Cheney unravels the myriad implications of a globe glittering with lights—including increased cancer rates, disrupted wildlife habitats and migratory patterns, and a generation of children who have never seen the universe above.

Where: State Cinema, 375 Elizabeth St North Hobart
When: 8:30pm Wednesday 30 November
Cost: $15 seniors | $17 concession | $19 full

G'DAY!

Welcome to the fourth Open House Hobart! You're invited to go behind the scenes of some of Hobart's most interesting buildings.

You'll be able to take a peek at how others live, work and play; see how the city's infrastructure works, look up, look inside, climb a shot tower and take in the incredible views from different vantage points around town. Don't forget your camera.

Some buildings require registration to visit. In true Tassie style, it's first in best dressed! So be sure to reserve your place online at openhousehobart.org. As you make your way around the city, share your snaps with the world by using the hashtag #oh_hobart. There's some great Tasmanian loot to be won.

Go on, take a look - you're gonna love it.

#oh_hobart
openhousehobart.org

SATURDAY 5 NOVEMBER

HOBART CITY, WEST HOBART, NORTH HOBART + NEW TOWN

For all tour bookings, visit openhousehobart.org

1. COLONIAL MUTUAL LIFE

The star of the heritage buildings that line the Elizabeth Street Bus Mall, Colonial Mutual Life contains more than enough reasons to get out your GoPro and jam Instagram.

Address: 18 Elizabeth St, Hobart
Open: 10am-4pm, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: Gargoyles, expansive rooftop views and multi-coloured hand painted terracotta tiles
Building specs: Type: Office building
Built: 1934-36 Architect: Hennessey & Hennessey

2. GENERAL POST OFFICE

Hobart's GPO was one of the first public buildings opened in Tasmania after Federation. Recently restored, the sandstone building's famous clock and tower were actually funded through public subscription by the people of Hobart.

Address: 9 Elizabeth St, Hobart
Open: Pre-booked tours only, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: heritage restoration, see inside the clock
Tours: 10am, 10.30am, 11am, 11.30am, 12pm, 1.30pm, 2pm, 2.30pm, 3pm & 3.30pm (20 mins tours). Bookings essential
Building specs: Type: Post office Built: 1906
Architect: Alan C Walker

3. HOBART TOWN HALL

This landmark sandstone building has been the seat of the Hobart City Council since 1866. Don't miss the flower show inside the ornate Victorian auditorium or the Town Hall Organ, which has been in use since 1870.

Address: 50 Macquarie St, Hobart
Open: 10am-4pm, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: Symmetry, chandeliers, organ and flower shows
Tours: Pre-booked tours only at 11am, 12pm & 1pm (45 mins tours). Bookings essential
Building specs: Type: Town Hall Built: 1866
Architect: Henry Hunter

4. RAFT SOUTH

Inside the old Mercury Press Hall, itself once a 1930s car showroom, Raft South is a commercial art gallery with a special interest in showing indigenous art in a contemporary context.

Address: L1, 30 Argyle St, Hobart
Open: 11am-4pm, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: Contemporary art in an innovative warehouse conversion
Building specs: Type: Showroom and offices Built: 1938, 2014 Architect: Philp & Wilson; Crawford, Cripps, Wegman, Core Collective

5. ST DAVID'S CATHEDRAL

Take a guided tour of St David's Cathedral and its iconic bell tower with the Very Reverend Richard Humphrey, get a look inside the bell ringers' room, and take in the views from the top of the tower.

Address: 23 Murray St, Hobart
Open: 10am-2pm, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: Bell ringers room, panoramic views of central Hobart, ornate ecclesiastical architecture
Tours: Bell tower tours at 10am, 10.30am, 11am, 11.30am & 12pm (25 mins tours). Bookings essential
Building specs: Type: Cathedral Built: 1868-1936
Architects: George F Bodley, Henry Hunter, Alan C Walker

6. THE BASEMENT

After years of neglect, the sub-floor basement of this heritage-listed Victorian Regency building in the heart of Hobart has been brought back to life with an additional flexible boardroom, office and function space.

Address: 105 Macquarie St, Hobart
Open: 10am-1pm, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: Simple design gestures
Building specs: Type: Victorian Regency office
Built: 1847, 2011 Architect: James Alexander Thompson, Preston Lane Architects

7. PARLIAMENT SQUARE HERITAGE BUILDINGS

This landmark site adjacent to Salamanca is being redeveloped to improve the link between the city centre and the waterfront. It's your chance to see inside the Davey Street heritage buildings before their refurbishment.

Address: 36 Davey St, Hobart
Open: Pre-booked tours only, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: New meets old, work in progress
Tours: Pre-booked tours only at 1pm & 2.30pm (40 mins tours). Closed-toe shoes required, solid rubber-soled shoes or boots only. Bookings essential
Building specs: Type: Hotel Built: Under construction
Architect: FJMT/Design 5

8. PARLIAMENT SQUARE OFFICE BUILDINGS

The Parliament Square office buildings will be the new home of Tasmanian parliamentarians and public servants-and provide much needed new retail space on Salamanca Place. Get a look at what's to be.

Address: 4 Salamanca Pl, Hobart (enter via stairs near 10 Murray St)
Open: Pre-booked tours only, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: New premium office space
Tours: Pre-booked tours only at 1pm & 2.30pm (40 mins tours). Closed-toe shoes required, solid rubber-soled shoes or boots only. Bookings essential
Building specs: Type: Office Built: Under construction
Architect: FJMT

9. SUPREME COURT

Join Supreme Court judges and architect Peter Partridge on a unique guided tour of the highest court in the state, including underground tunnels and basement criminal holding cells.

Address: 1 Salamanca Pl, Hobart
Open: Pre-booked tours only, Saturday 5 November and Sunday 6 November
Highlights: Holding cells, court interiors
Tours: Pre-booked tours only 10am Saturday 5 November & 10am Sunday 6 November. Bookings essential
Building specs: Type: Court buildings
Built: 1970s Architect: Peter Partridge

10. REAL TENNIS CLUB

One of only four real tennis clubs in Australia, Hobart's is also the oldest. What's real tennis? You've got to see it to believe it!

Address: 45 Davey St, Hobart
Open: 10am-4pm, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: Real tennis exhibition match, model of tennis court
Building specs: Type: Sports building Built: 1875, 2002
Architect: Samuel Smith Travers, H20

11. CCAMLR

CCAMLR is the Commission for the Conservation of Antarctic Marine Living Resources. This historic building dates from 1846 and is known locally as the original Hutchins School.

Address: 181 Macquarie St, Hobart
Open: Pre-booked tour only, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: Symmetrical illusion, gothic tower
Tours: Pre-booked tour only at 10am (60 mins tour). Bookings essential
Building specs: Type: School building, now offices
Built: 1847, 2011 Architect: William Archer

12. ANGELSEA BARRACKS

With buildings made of convict brick and local sandstone dating back to 1814, Angelsea Barracks is the oldest military barracks still in use in Australia and includes the country's only nineteenth-century military prison.

Address: 96-120 Davey St, Hobart
Open: 10am-4pm, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: Army Museum of Tasmania
Tours: Pre-booked tours at 10am, 11am, 12pm & 1pm
Building specs: Type: army barracks Built: 1814
Architect: John Lee Archer, David Lambe, JC Victor, Richard Turton, Roger Kelsall

13. PRINCES PARK MAGAZINE

Underneath the popular Princes Park in Battery Point, a disused, fully intact subterranean magazine can be found.

Address: Castray Esp, Battery Point
Open: 10am-1pm, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: Heritage listed, subterranean magazine
Tours: 10am, 11am & 12pm. Bookings not required
Building specs: Type: Magazine Built: Unknown
Architect: Unknown

14. BROOKE STREET PIER

Remember Peter Carey's novel Oscar and Lucinda in which Oscar floats a glass church from Sydney to Bellingham? Well, Hobart architect Robert Morris-Nunn and naval architect Fred Barrett won their bet to do much the same down the Derwent River.

Address: Franklin Wharf, Hobart
Open: 10am-4pm, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: Floating building, basement, innovative heating and cooling system
Tours: Pre-booked tours only 1pm & 2pm (30 mins tours). Bookings essential
Building specs: Type: Pier Built: 2014
Architect: Circa Morris-Nunn

15. BRICKWORKS DESIGN STUDIO

The Brickworks Design Studio is where built environment professionals and style conscious renovators go for the latest in brick, clay, stone and timber products. The modular fit out is a good example of adaptive reuse in a heritage context.

Address: 9 Franklin Wharf, Hobart
Open: 10am-4pm, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: Old meets the future
Building specs: Type: Office Built: 1886, 2015
Architect: Unknown, BYA Architects

16. HENRY JONES ART HOTEL

Anthony Trollope wrote that Tasmania should make jam for all the world. Henry Jones did just that. Now his jam factory is a world-class art hotel.

Address: 25 Hunter St, Hobart
Open: 10am-4pm, Saturday 5 November and Sunday 6 November (public spaces only)
Highlights: 200 years of industrial heritage, art collection
Tours: Pre-booked tours only at 10am & 2pm both days (45 mins tours). Bookings essential
Building specs: Type: Converted warehouses, factory buildings and hotel Built: 1860, 2005
Architects: Unknown, Circa Morris-Nunn

17. TASPORTS TOWER

The port tower was designed to oversee the entire port and manage the arrival and departure of all ships. It is still used as the main observation point for all under-bridge crossings and is the office/staff room for the sea pilots.

Address: Hunter St, Hobart
Open: Pre-booked tours only, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: Unsurpassed views of Hobart's working waterfront
Tours: 10am, 10.45am, 11.30am, 12.15pm, 1.30pm, 2.15pm & 3pm
Building specs: Type: Observation tower Built: Unknown
Architect: Unknown

18. MAC 01-HOTEL UNDER CONSTRUCTION

Hobart's newest waterfront building is nearing completion. On this construction site tour you'll see what it takes to make a 4.5 star hotel, and even get to see some completed suites.

Address: Hunter St, Hobart
Open: Pre-booked tours only, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: Waterfront building, construction site, 4.5 star hotel
Tours: Pre-booked tours only at 10am, 11am, 12pm, 2pm & 3pm (45 mins tours)
Building specs: Type: Hotel Built: Under construction
Architect: Circa Morris-Nunn

19. BANK ARCADE

Beneath the Bank Arcade are the remains of Hobart's oldest known building. Owner John Short will bring this curious little building's history to life, and reveal its connection to William Bligh.

Address: Bank Arcade, Hobart
Open: Pre-booked tours only, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: An insight into the history of the building and its ancient basement
Tours: Pre-booked tours 10am, 11am, 1pm, 2pm (30 mins tours). Bookings essential
Building specs: Type: Retail and offices Built: 1805, 1835, 1860, 1958 Architect: William Collins, Salier & Glaskin

20. VODAFONE

This office space with roof is an inspiring and unique call centre designed to reflect and motivate the company's youth-based employees and customers.

Address: 63 Liverpool St, Hobart
Open: Pre-booked tours only, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: Futuristic new office space featuring games area, meeting pods and inter-floor slide
Tours: Pre-booked tours only at 2pm & 2.45pm (30 mins tours). Bookings essential
Building specs: Type: Offices Built: 2015 Architect: JAWSARCHITECTS, BYA Architects

21. HOBART SYNAGOGUE

Built in 1845, this is the oldest synagogue in Australia and a rare example of Egyptian Revival architecture. Designed by former convict James Thomson and consecrated in 1843, the synagogue still hosts services today.

Address: 59 Argyle St, Hobart
Open: 10pm-4pm, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: One of the few remaining synagogues in the world built in the Egyptian Revival style, features hard benches used by Jewish convicts
Building specs: Type: Synagogue Built: 1845
Architect: James Thomson

22. CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST

The Church of Christ Scientist features striking details typical of Inter-War Free Classical design. You'll be blown away by the carpet in the church's Sunday School out back, which was bought second-hand from West Point in the 1970s.

Address: 69 Brisbane St, Hobart
Open: 10am-4pm, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: Historic streetscape, one of a group of intact ecclesiastical buildings, iridescent carpet
Building specs: Type: Church Built: 1928, 1933, 1975
Architect: Bernard Ridley Walker

23. LINC

The façade of LINC Tasmania is the earliest glass curtain wall in Hobart. Next door, the strangely invisible Brutalist Stack building has one of the highest vantage points in the city. Inside, the Allport Library and Museum of Fine Arts traces 200 years of Tasmanian history.

Address: 91 Murray St, Hobart
Open: 10am-2.30pm, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: Glass curtain wall, textured concrete, historic archive, expansive city views
Tours: Pre-booked tours at 10.30am & 11.30am.
Building specs: Type: Library and archive Built: 1960, 1972 Architect: John FD Scarborough and Associates

24. TASMANIA FIRE MUSEUM

Located in the old Hobart Fire Brigade's 1911 Head Station, the Tasmania Fire Museum houses a collection of the state's fire-fighting history, including a hand-drawn fire pump from 1826.

Address: Argyle St, Hobart
Open: Pre-booked tours only, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: Fire-fighting vehicles and appliances
Tours: Pre-booked tours only at 10am, 11am, 12pm, 2pm & 3pm (45 mins tours)
Building specs: Type: Fire station Built: 1911
Architect: Department of Public Works

25. PENITENTIARY CHAPEL

Offering a fascinating insight into Colonial Tasmania, this historic site retains a beautiful 1834 tower with two courtrooms virtually unchanged for more than 150 years and the Hobart Gaol chapel restored to architect John Lee Archer's original 1830s design.

Address: Cnr Brisbane & Campbell Sts, Hobart
Open: Pre-booked tours only, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: underground tunnels, solitary confinement cells and gallows
Tours: Pre-booked tours only at 11am & 1pm
Building specs: Type: Church and gaol
Built: 1834-59 Architect: John Lee Archer

26. THE BARN

This long derelict 1829 Georgian barn on the fringe of the Hobart CBD was once part of the stables of Goulburn Street's Bull's Head Hotel. Made of local sandstone and convict bricks, it also features a 45 degree pitched roof - perfect for generous loft living.

Address: 42C Goulburn St, Hobart
Open: 1.30pm-4pm, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: New meets old, award-winning architecture
Building specs: Type: Barn conversion Built: 1820s, 2013 Architect: Alex Nielsen, Liz Walsh

27. HILL STREET RESERVOIR + PUMP STATION

Ever wondered where your water comes from? Join an intriguing and eerie tour of this historic reservoir and pump station.

Address: Cnr of Faraday and Hill Sts, West Hobart
Open: Pre-booked tours only, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: Go behind the scenes at one of the city's water treatment plants
Tours: Pre-booked tours at 10am, 11am & 11.45am (30 min tours). Closed-toe shoes required. Bookings essential
Building specs: Type: Reservoir and pump station
Built: 1862, 1883, 1980 Architects: Unknown

28. WILLIAM STREET HOUSE

This is a handsome interwar home with an enlightened addition by Core Collective. The project retains some original spaces, while completely upgrading the building's amenity.

Address: 23 William St, West Hobart
Open: 10am-4pm, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: Respectful arts and adds to brick interwar house. Check out the exterior tiles and fire place
Building specs: Type: House Built: 2016
Architect: unknown, Core Collective

29. FRIENDS SCHOOL

Located on the Hobartville Estate overlooking Hobart Town, the Friends School was founded in 1867 by the Quakers community and has evolved as an eclectic mix of buildings that relate the development of design in education over 120 years.

Address: 23 Commercial Rd, North Hobart
Open: 1pm-4pm, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: Portico, history of school architecture
Building specs: Type: School Built: 1889
Architect: George Fagg, Bernard Ridley Walker, SWT Blythe

SUNDAY 6 NOVEMBER

SANDY BAY, TAROONA + KINGSTON

For all tour bookings, visit openhousehobart.org

33. WREST POINT

Completed in 1973, the 64-metre Wrest Point hotel tower is still Hobart's tallest building. This site contains a fascinating history of leisure and entertainment in Tasmania. Explore architecture from Art Deco to Post Modern and see the plans for the future.

Address: 41 Sandy Bay Rd, Sandy Bay
Open: 10am-4pm, Saturday 5 November & Sunday 6 November
Highlights: Hobart's tallest building, art collection, kids' activities, site history and future on display
Tours: Pre-booked tours at 10am, 11am & 1pm. Bookings essential
Building specs: Type: Hotel
Built: 1939, 1973 Architect: Keith Wildman, Roy Grounds

30. SMITH STREET WAREHOUSE

The demands of a young family are easily met inside this former warehouse, which retains its industrial aesthetic of galvanised metal sheet and formwork ply throughout expansive open spaces.

Address: 1/14 Smith St, North Hobart
Open: Pre-booked tours only, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: Depth of space, industrial aesthetic
Tours: 1pm, 12.0pm, 1.40pm, 2pm, 2.20pm, 2.40pm, 3pm, 3.20pm & 3.40pm (15 mins tours). Bookings essential
Building specs: Type: Warehouse conversion Built: Unknown, 2007 Architect: Terrori

31. NEW TOWN ROAD HOUSE

Back by popular demand, Chris Clinton's reconfiguration of a simple shop into a two-bedroom unit, the award-winning New Town Road House!

Address: 62 New Town Rd, New Town
Open: 10am-2pm, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: Craftsmanship, designed and built by architect owner
Building specs: Type: House (Fish and chip shop conversion) Built: 2014 (renovation) Architect: Core Collective

32. BOA VISTA ROAD

This 1930s house showcases exquisite decorative details from the Art Deco period, while embracing new technologies of the era, with modern architectural ideas such as clean horizontal lines and open planning.

Address: 11 Boa Vista Rd, North Hobart
Open: 1pm-4pm, Saturday 5 November
Highlights: Exquisite Art Deco detailing
Building specs: Type: House Built: 1938
Architect: Colin Philp & David Hartley Wilson

34. YORK STREET HOUSE

This is a beautiful yet modest home in historic Sandy Bay that features raw materials such as exposed concrete and timbers, as well as practical solutions for a small family.

Address: 69 York St, Sandy Bay
Open: 10am-4pm, Sunday 6 November
Highlights: Modest simplicity, honest use of materials without adornment
Building specs: Type: House Built: 2010

35. UTAS INTO THE FUTURE

See the award-winning Student Lounge at UTAS's Sandy Bay campus, hear all about the new student accommodation in Melville St and find out what's been unearthed at archaeological digs at this special presentation by architects Terrori, Preston Lane and others.

Address: Stanley Burbury Theatre, Administration Building, Churchill Ave, Sandy Bay
Open: 1pm-3pm, Sunday 6 November
Highlights: See into the past and the future of UTAS
Tours: 2.30pm. Bookings not required
Building specs: Type: University Built: 2015, under construction
Architects: Preston Lane, Terrori

36. DORNEY HOUSE AT FORT NELSON

Beautiful views of the Derwent Estuary, historic fortifications, and a mid-century Modern interior with sunken lounge. Located atop the abandoned Fort Nelson, this Esmond Dorney house is the home of your dreams.

Address: 22 Gardena Gvy, Sandy Bay
Open: 10am-4pm, Sunday 6 November
Highlights: Fort, roof design and views
Tours: Guided tours, bookings not required
Building specs: Type: Fort & house Built: 1904, (Fort Nelson) 1949, 1966 and 1978 (Dorney House)
Architect: Esmond Dorney

37. RIVER'S EDGE HOUSE

This is a warm, relaxed family home that connects with the owners' love of Tasmania's environment. Craftsmanship, raw materials and diverse spaces combine to sequentially reveal the site as you proceed toward the Derwent's edge.

Address: 48 Flinders Esp, Taroona
Open: Pre-booked tours only, Sunday 6 November
Highlights: Talk by architect Stuart Tanner
Tours: Pre-booked tours only at 10am & 11am (30 mins tours). Bookings essential
Building specs: Type: House Built: 2014-2015
Architect: Stuart Tanner

38. TAROONA SHOT TOWER

Built in 1870 the Taroona Shot Tower is the oldest in Australia-and the only one you can still climb! Incredibly, it was designed and built in just eight months.

Address: 318 Channel Hwy, Taroona
Open: 10am-1pm, Sunday 6 November
Highlights: Oldest shot tower in Australia, original stairs, panoramic views
Building specs: Type: Shot Tower Built: 1840
Architect: James Mair

39. TAROONA BEACH BOATSHEDS

Cute, quaint and full of charm, the heritage-listed Taroona Beach boatsheds are part of a national vernacular of seaside convenience. See inside these most basic of structures, and hear a little about their importance to Australian beach culture.

Address: Taroona Beach, Taroona
Open: 1pm-4pm, Sunday 6 November
Highlights: vertical board vernacular, kids activities
Building specs: Type: boat sheds Built: Unknown
Architect: Unknown

40. HILL HOUSE

This passive solar house has been designed for multi-generational, universal access. It has solar power, shou sugi-ban cladding,